

Bringing out the best in our best friends

Our Guarantee

As a professional member of the Association of Professional Dog Trainers (APDT), Bob Ryder pledged to abide by their ethics statement, which includes:

“Members will refrain from giving guarantees regarding the outcome of training because there is no sure way to guarantee the cooperation and performance of all parties involved and because the knowledge of animal behavior is incomplete.”

While we believe it’s unethical for a dog trainer to make guarantees about behavior results, we can guarantee stellar customer service, as well as a commitment to:

- a customized approach to individual client goals
- use R+ training methods, or gentle counter conditioning
- never use pain, fear, or force with your dog
- help clients seek relief, change, and improvement in their dog's behavior
- ongoing continuing education
